An Appeal to Northern Sympathy. From the Charleston News and Courier.]

In our extremity we ask of Massachusetts and the other States of the "Old Thirteen" a fair and patient hearing, in order that our countrymen may know, as they have never known. the desperate pass to which imbecility and corruption have brought a quarter of a million of American citizens in South Carolina, to insure whose "demestic tranquility," with that of their countrymen, the constitution of the United States was ordained and established.

First-A month ago the colored laborers in the counties of Beaufort and Colleton struck for higher wages. Many of the hands were willing to work at the advanced rate given at the beginning of harvesting, but the ringleaders drove such laborers from the fields, set upon them, bruised them with clubs and brutally whipped them. To this hour the two counties named are in a perturbed condition.

Second—In Charleston, on September 6, a mob of radical negroes attacked two colored democrats, who were defended by a party of white citizens. In the fight that ensued one man was killed and several persons were greviously wounded. For some hours the negro rioters held undisputed possession of the principal thoroughfare of the city.

Third-At the beginning of this week a posse with a constable, bearing a warrant for the arrest of a negro charged with assault and rob bery of an aggravated character, were fired upon near Ellenton by a crowd of negroes, with whom the fugitive from justice had taken refuge. These negroes have since burned two dwelling houses and a number of barns. They removed the rails on the Port Royal Railroad, threw a train from the track and fired into the train. They threaten even now to burn the villages on the line of road. Fourth-In the quiet town of Aiken the white citizens on Friday night siept on their arms; the blacks having beaten the long roll and manifested an intention to use the torch as a surer weapon of offence than shotgun or

Fifth-In Marion, the other day, a negro resisted arrest, and, with his companious, fired upon and wounded one of the sheriff's posse who attempted to arrest him.

Sixth-The deputy sheriff of Barowell, a republican, is ambuscaded and wounded by negroes and the clothes of the officer with him were riddled with balls.

The facts we give, stripped to the bare truth, and capable of confirmation by a cloud of trustworthy witnesses, exhibit the situation of the low country of South Carolina, where the negroes predominate. For a month or more the white citizens have been in imminent danger The assassin threatens them by day and the barn burner by night.

The State government is in undisputed possession of the republican party. What has been done by that State government, or by local efficers, to restore to the people, under the constitution the inalienable rights of "enjoying and defending their lives and liberties, of acquiring, possession and protecting property, and of seeking and obtaining their safety and hap-

First-In Beaufort nineteen of the Combahee rioters were arrested. All save five were discharged. The remaining five were tried on Wednesday. Their guilt was admitted; no defence was made. They were promptly acquit-

Second-A show of authority was made in Coleton, but the rioters pursued the deputy sheriff, and posse, rescued their prisoner and drove the "minions of the law" in derision back to Waterboro," The sheriff of Colleton re ports that he cannot execute the processes of the law in the lower part part of the county.

Third-In Charleston one solitary arrest has been made, and that was, after long delay, upon the affidavit of a citizen who had been assaulted. The city authorities hear nothing, say nothing, attempt nothing.

Fourth—No arrest in Barnwell or Aiken!
No arrests at Ellenton or Hattieville!

Fifth-Where are the courts? The radical juage of the circuit in which the main disturbances take place hurries into court before the appointed hour of meeting and adjourns at once. It was the day for the opening of the regular term, and an adjournment without day is ordered, without reference to the rights of prisoners, the wishes of counsel or the convethence of the jurors.

Sixth-Where is the Governor of the State? With the murderous voileys of the Ellenton rioters ringing in his ears, he deserted his post on Monday night last, and hied him to Massachusetts!

Several white men have been killed in the different combats, and a number of negroes are reported to be slain. The negroes believe themselves to be above the law, and act upon this behel. The State is threatened with a war of races. The State government, from Governor down, encourages the lawless negroes to further exe sa by the failure to stamp out the first germs of disorder. And the whites! What are they doing? For their own protection and that of peaceful colored citizens they have organized themselves in every district. It is the whites who maintain order wherever order reigns. The expentive calls upon the United States troops to arrest the Eilenton outlaws, and at their coming the whites withdraw. But these troops, whatever their gallantry, cannot gather at every fireside which is menaced with desolation; nor can they, whatever their great good will, take the place which is filled by Governor, Sheriff, judge and jury, in a commuonly where civil law is supreme. In the low country of South Carolina to-day there is neither civil law nor military law. Neither the sword nor the toga commands and maintains peace. In Charleston and in Columbia squads of armed civilians belonging to the different organizations assemble each night in their armories, under their officers, ready to defend, muskets in hand, their imperilled hearths and homes. The two chief cities of South Carolina are armed camps. Every white citizen is enrolled, and within an hour the whole body of lenged to the State government—when South at 88 King street, corner of Royal sts.
